LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section rain and warmer to night; Tuesday unsettled, but probably clearing weather and colder; northerly winds, becoming north-westerly.

BAPTISM OF REV. MR. McALLISTER.—Rev. William H. McAllister, late pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church in this city, was baptized and formally received into the Baptist Church yesterday morning at Brantly Church, Baltimore, by Rev. Dr. H. M. Wharton. In spite of the heavy snow storm the church was crowded. Rev. Dr. Wharton introduced him to the congregation, saying that Mr. McAllister was a dear friend of his. On being introduced Mr. McAllister said: "I would not be here this morning if I was not assured in my heart that I am making a transfer to that church which will foster this very growth in grace, and in the knowledge of Our Lord Jesus Christ which Dr. Wharton has preached about. I should not be here did I not know that in the Baptist Church I shall reach a place where everything alien to Christ will be at a minimum. You have undoubtedly read the past week in the proceedings of the Baltimore Methodist Episcopal Conference how the most noted, thoughtful and profound men of that body have expressed their dissatisfaction with certain things in that church. These were some of the most loyal and prominent of Methodists. This dissatisfaction is no new thing. It existed in 1839, more than fifty years ago, still exists, and probably will exist fifty years hence." After expressing his satisfaction at being in the Baptist communion and showing the many advantages which he claims are to be found in its fold, he concluded his discourse as follows: "As to my belief in the form of baptism by immersion, I will say that it is admitted by all to be the primitive form. Immersion is so acknowledged by all who are acquainted with the exegesis and the history of the church. Immersion is permitted as a privilege, and partially acknowledged as the true form, in the Methodist Episcopal Church. I have just heard from a Methodist preacher in a mountain district who is immersing more members than he is sprinkling. Whatever the Lord has in store for me He knows. I absolutely surrender myself to his guidance, knowing that full well whatever He does will be best for me."

SENT TO THE WORK HOUSE.—Shortly after it began to snow Saturday night Celia Keyes, colored, filled herself with "Petersburg" whisky and fell beside a fence in the neighborhood of "hard corner." She was disposed to lay where she was and to lapse into pleasant dreams, but as the snow continued to fall she had enough sense left to realize she would not awake were she to give way to her inclinations. The woman managed to get on her feet and staggered away, and had she remained orderly would not have been molested; but she used her tongue for all it was worth, abusing this and that one, until Lieutenant Smith and Officer Howson were compelled to arrest her. At the station house she made her presence known by yelling and talking the remainder of the night. She drew vivid pictures of scenes which would be enacted on judgment day, at which time, she said, mundane affairs would be righted; that she was to ascend in a cloud while the Mayor and his police men would be turned over to the evil one for the injustice done her. Celia was this morning turned over to the Overseer of the Work House where she will spend the next ninety days.

THE SOUTHERN MACHINE SHOPS.—The Southern Railway Company has recently added many thousands of dollars' worth of new and valuable machinery to that already in their extensive shops in this city and this new machinery is of the latest and most improved pattern. This machinery is being placed in position, as fast as it is received here, under the supervision of Mr. C. F. Thomas, the master mechanic of the Midland division of the road, and one of the most skilled mechanical engineers in this section of the country—a man who thoroughly understands his business and knows the qualification of every man in his employ. These shops are now fitted as they never were before and any piece of machinery in use on the road can be either repaired or renewed in the latest design can now be built entirely at these shops. There is now a large force of skilled men kept constantly at work repairing and renewing the locomotives, cars, &c., on the division and the force is increased as occasion demands.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of by Mayor Thompson this morning:

George Stevens and C. R. Lee, arrested by Officer Ferguson for drunken and disorderly conduct, were sent to the chain gang for ninety days under the vagrant law.

A white man, arrested by Officer Deane for assaulting a colored man, had his case postponed until to-night.

Celia Keyes, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Howson for drunken and disorderly conduct, was sent to the work house for ninety days under the vagrant act.

Two white men, charged with disorderly conduct, had their case postponed until to-night.

Mary Hammond and Mamie Jackson, arrested on the charge of harboring a minor, were dismissed Saturday night, the charge not having been substantiated.

Night Report.—Last night was rainy and cool. Four lodgers were at the station house.

THE WEATHER.—The clear weather of the early part of Saturday night underwent a decided change before yesterday morning. About two o'clock the stars were hidden by clouds and shortly afterwards snow began to fall which continued during the greater part of the morning. The snow was followed by rain and an easterly wind, rendering the temperature raw and cold. There were but few people on the streets during the day and the churches were but sparsely attended, especially at night, when most people preferred to remain at their firesides than to face the elements. The rain has continued at intervals during the greater part of today.

Two freight handlers at the W. & O. depot went on a strike on Saturday evening. The reason assigned by the men for the strike is that they do not care to work with negroes. That day four colored men were placed at the platform to handle heavy freight. Today a full complement of hands is at work.

LETTER FROM COL. EDGAR ALLAN.—Mr. Thomas H. Morgan, of this city, has received the following in response to a letter by him complaining of the treatment his wing of the republican party of this city is receiving at the hands of Col. Lamb, the State chairman:

RICHMOND, Mar. 14, 1896.
Thos. H. Morgan, Esq., Alexandria, Va.
 My Dear Sir:—Accept thanks for your favor just received, and appreciation of the kindly expressions it contains. In regard to my efforts to maintain home rule for the republican voters of the city of Richmond in view of the outrageous conduct of C. L. Lamb, it is hardly surprising that one of his most ardent supporters at the time that he was elected chairman should have recently said in a letter, "Gen. Mahone with all his dictatorial disposition would blush in his grave if he could see what Col. Lamb is doing to break up the party which he (Gen. Mahone) built up." Your people have not only the warmest sympathy of Judge Waddill and myself, but we have hundreds of letters from every section of the State breathing dissatisfaction at the way in which Col. Lamb is ignoring the will of the people and the local organizations selected by the people in order that he may carry out his corrupt bargain to send twenty-four white delegates to St. Louis unpunished to any candidate and only to be traded off when he (Col. Lamb) can get the assurance which he wants of recognition inside and outside of State lines. This is substantially what he said he would do in a letter marked "strictly confidential," a copy of which I have in my possession. In this fight he has not shown the manliness to openly face me before my people in Richmond, but all his dirty work has been done through secret intrigue. My communications have all been as this one is, not "confidential," but pro bono publico. We are going to win here, we are going to win at Staunton, and if you work as we are doing, strictly under the party plan of organization with the people by your side, you need not fear the result of the contest. Much good has come out of the furious fight of Col. Lamb's to the noble chieftain, William McKinley, who is known to be my choice for the presidency.

Col. Lamb can no longer hide with the thin gauze of hypocrisy that he is pledged to no candidate. The fact is that he is bitterly opposed to the nation's choice and the legitimate candidate of our party, the great protectionist leader, whom I have named. I have kept him so busy trying to keep the fleece on his own back that the State at large has been neglected by him, and has received a good deal of attention from me.

Keep up your fight, and when McKinley is president he will remember for he knows now how low bitterly he has been assailed by those in this State who once pretended to be his friends. Very truly yours,
 EDGAR ALLAN.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Geo. D. Johnson has opened an office at 125 South Royal street and will practice law in this city and vicinity. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia and of the Columbian University, Washington, D. C., and is well known here.

FUNERALS.—The funeral of Mrs. George H. Norton took place yesterday evening from her late home on Prince street, and was largely attended.

The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, and the interment was in the family lot in St. Paul's cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. W. Hood, E. L. Daingerfield, A. Herbert, J. S. Blackburn, R. F. Knox and John R. Zimmerman.

The funeral of Capt. George W. Wilkerson took place from his late residence, No. 1109 Duke street, yesterday evening and was attended by a large number of his railroad associates. Rev. J. H. Butler, of the Baptist Church, officiated. The pallbearers were A. D. Sullivan, Saml. Garrett, William Rudd, George Burke and J. Jones. The interment was in Bethel Cemetery.

The little child of Mr. Barney Simpson was buried yesterday morning.

TO REACH AND TAKE THE PLUM.—A letter from this city to the Richmond Times says: "The withdrawal of R. Walton Moore as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Congress was a surprise to most people here, and puts Mr. Meredith against the field. Each of the counties has a 'favorite son,' also a claim, and it now looks as though ex-Mayor Strauss, of this city, or Joe Willard, of Fairfax, may simply have to reach up and take the plum."

The guileless writer of the above, before he is six months older, will learn that it requires considerable reaching nowadays to secure a congressional nomination.

DISORDERLY TRAMPS.—On Saturday afternoon George Stevens and C. R. Lee, two strangers, drank themselves drunk and became disorderly in the streets, so much so that Officer Ferguson had to arrest them. At the station house they were very disorderly, and called first for the captain, then for the lieutenant and afterwards for the sergeant, and kept it up for hours. The neighborhood was disturbed by their cries and it became necessary to gag them. They were brought before the Mayor this morning, who sent them to the chain gang for ninety days.

APPOINTMENT.—The Daily National Intelligence, of Washington, says: "We are glad to announce that we have secured the assistance of Dr. A. F. Cox as our correspondent and representative in Alexandria. The doctor is authorized to secure advertisements and subscriptions for our papers in Alexandria or elsewhere, and collect and receipt for the same." Dr. Cox was one of the city tax collectors for several years, and his qualifications as a collector will doubtless render him a valuable acquisition to the Intelligence.

A petition was filed by E. B. Taylor, receiver of the Farmers and Mechanics' Insurance Company, to be allowed to file a notice in the suit of Harlow vs. McKenzie's executor.

Col. G. A. Martin, of Norfolk, was allowed to practice in this court.

The docket was called and cases set and court adjourned till to-morrow.

DISTURBANCE.—A disturbance took place in a store on upper Prince street on Saturday evening between the proprietor and a colored man, during which the latter was roughly handled. His head being severely cut. The colored man swore out a warrant for the arrest of his assailant, and the case will come up to-night in the Police Court. It is claimed that the injured man brought the trouble on by acting in a disorderly manner while in the store.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The St. Joseph's Aid Society, of St. Mary's Church, will give an entertainment at Lyceum Hall to-morrow night for the benefit of the poor. The programme will consist of musical and literary exercises, after the rendition of which refreshments will be served. The feature of the programme will be a panegyric on the life of St. Patrick by Rev. Father F. X. McCarthy.

CANDIDATES INVITED.—Mr. Leonard Marbury, chairman of the Eighth congressional district democratic committee, has written a letter to all the prospective candidates for congress, requesting them to meet the committee at his office on Wednesday when arrangements are to be made for holding a convention to nominate a candidate for Congress.

FAINTED AT THE GRAVE.—Yesterday afternoon while the body of Wm. Keith, colored, was being interred in Douglas cemetery, the mother of the deceased fainted. Considerable excitement followed and some time elapsed before the grief-stricken woman was restored to consciousness.

A delegation of officers of the Improved Order of Knights of Pythias came here yesterday from Washington to institute a sister lodge of that order here, but as the preliminary arrangements had not been made the matter was deferred.

In spite of the inclement weather a large crowd listened to an interesting address by Mr. Boydkin, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, at the railroad reading rooms yesterday afternoon. The union prayer and praise services to-night will be conducted by Mr. Norman Williamson, of the Baptist Church, at 7:45 o'clock. These services are very interesting and every one should attend and take part.

The police on Saturday arrested Mamie Jackson, of this city, and Mary Hammond of Naylor's alley, Washington, on suspicion of knowing the whereabouts of Fannie Thornton, the fourteen-year-old colored girl, who has been missing from her home in Washington, for two weeks. There was no evidence against the women and they were released to appear when wanted.

The Richmond State says: "Mr. Allan on Saturday received a letter from a republican leader in Alexandria, enclosing clippings from a colored paper there 'roasting' Allan. The gentleman related the fact that Lamb had made charges there that had created dissatisfaction in the party in Alexandria. The gentleman further wrote that the Alexandria republicans who were taking great interest in the Richmond fight were almost solidly against Lamb and in favor of Allan."

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of two men for disorderly conduct. One of the accused is alleged to have struck a woman.

SAYS "BOSTON CHARLEY" IS A VICTIM.—Charles Marriott, otherwise known as "Boston Charley," the confidence man, is making a hard fight against the attempt to get him to the District of Columbia. It will be remembered when the Central office caused his arrest Magistrate Crane let him go, much to the disgust of Mr. Roosevelt. Before U. S. Commissioner Shields Saturday his lawyer, Mr. McManus, said he could show that "Boston Charley" was under police surveillance in Alexandria at the time he is alleged to have committed the crime in Washington. The lawyer said it was a case of malicious prosecution backed by a stool pigeon known as "Oyster Jim." He got an adjournment.—N. Y. World.

TRULY ASTONISHING.—Miss Annette N. Moon, Fountain, Minn., says: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has had a wonderful effect in curing my brother's children of a severe and dangerous cold. It was truly astonishing how speedily they found relief after taking this preparation."

The sooner you begin to fight the fire, the more easily it may be extinguished. The sooner you begin taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for your blood disease, the easier will be the cure. In both cases, delay is dangerous, if not fatal. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other.
